Steel plants have bought 10,000 tons additional of basic, and pipe works have bought 20,000 of Virginia foundry. Prices are advancing. There have been some additional sales of old material to steel works in the east, and some heavy business is reported to have been done in the west for Chicago and Pittsburg works.

ume of business in iron and steel products last week was smaller than for several weeks, specifications on contracts were heavy.

The principal development was the action of the railroads, which are preparing to place large contracts for cars for next year's delivery and are rushing idle cars into repair shops to meet the pressure of the shipments.

It is estimated that at least a million tons of shapes and plates will be required by the railroad equipment in the six months. Rail contracts have only been 25,000 tons, but the full month is likely to develop orders aggregating 300.000 tons.

Orders for fabricated steel have reached 30,000 tons during the week, 10,000 tons of which went to the American Bridge company. RICHFIELD WOMAN SUICIDES WORK ON BIG AIRSHIP

Mrs. Elizabeth Jensen Hangs Herself to Rafter in Abandoned Cellar-Scott Says It Will Be Largest Flying

Her Mind Afflicted. Ephraim, June 20 .- One of the largest funerals ever held at Beaver was that of Ralph Hurst of that place, who was accidentally killed while working at the canyon. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hurst of that place and was one of the most highly respected young men of that community. He was only 18 years of age, but had grown to manhood and was one of the officers of the Beaver oand. While asleep in his tent a large boulder rolled from the mountainside, entirely crushing his body beneath it and death was caused instantly. The suicide of Mrs. Elizabeth Jensen of Richfield, which occurred at that place last evening, has cast a gloom over the entire city. She was an elderly lady, probably 69 years of age, and was one of the highly respected citizens of that countity. Last winter she was taken sick with typhoid fever, since then having been troubled with a weak mind. She was raphfolly recovering and her daughters, who are also living at Richfield, thought that she would be perfectly safe to be left alone. Since her illness they have been changing about in staying with their mother. Mr, Jensen left his wife busile engaged in her household duties and she was apparently feeling fine. When he returned in the evening he found the house looking nice and tidy but could not search of her and the last place they thought of searching was an old cellar, which was not being used, and to their surprise found her lifeless body hanging to a rafter. The rope was placed around her neck and she had strangled to death. She leaves a husband and four married children, one daughter in Mexico, her son, Nils Jensen, Mrs. Carrie Baker and Mrs. Lena Erickson, all residents of Rihed.
